CENTER FOR PUBLIC AND NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT

CPNM AmeriCorps *VISTA

Homeless Education Program

The Center for Public and Nonprofit Management (CPNM) was formally established within the School of Public Administration (SPA), College of Health and Public Affairs (COHPA), in 2008. Since the center's inception, CPNM has been engaging organizations in Central Florida and beyond to partner with leading academics to address community issues and increase community capacity. Local, regional, statewide, national, and international practitioners, and domestic and international public administration, planning, research administration, and nonprofit scholars utilize the center's research to enhance their services.

AMERICORPS VISTA — Volunteers In Service To America

About the program:

As a CPNM VISTA member you will service Central Florida Homeless Children as a fully trained and qualified leader in nonprofit capacity building. You will receive an intensive orientation and training in five critical areas: organizational development, program development, collaboration and community engagement, leadership development, program development, and evaluation of effectiveness. CPNM VISTAs will work with community practitioners providing technical assistance in internal management systems of strategic planning, financial management, policies, procedures, and in other areas as needed.
