

ORC Research Development Workshops

Title: Find Funding (COS & IRIS)

Overview: How do I find sources of grant funding? How do I register into COS & IRIS? What are the special features of these databases?

Presenters: Marysol Murcia, Maddy Chokshi

Thurs Sept 3, 2009 @ noon

Title: Grant Writing Workshop

Overview: This session will discuss the basic sections of a grant proposal. The areas of discussion include: What types of strategies and information provided in a proposal will increase the chances of funding? What are the important factors to keep in mind when developing and writing the proposal? What are the common mistakes to avoid? How do I implement a grant project AND produce research for publications? What are the advantages of grant funding for me?

Presenters: Jo Ann Smith, Mary Tripp, and/or Frank Wiser, Joan Jarvis

Thurs Sept 10, 2009 @ noon

Title: How to Build Partnerships and Collaborations to Increase Grant Funding

Overview: During this session we will talk about the types of organizations available on campus and in the community for possible collaborations. Several examples of partnerships will be presented. The session will end with faculty discussing their areas of interest and brainstorming a list of possible collaborations.

Presenters: Jo Ann Smith, Mary Tripp

Thurs Sept 17, 2009 @ noon

Title: Building a Budget, Indirect costs, Subcontracts, and Matching Funds

Overview: What are indirect costs compared to direct costs? How do I subcontract to a school district, business, or not-for-profit? Where do I locate matching funds? What strategies can I use related to the budget to meet my professional needs?

Presenters: Jo Ann Smith, Mary Tripp

Wed Sept 23, 2009 @ noon

Title: Protecting Human Subjects and the Review Process

This workshop will introduce the federally-mandated human subjects review process for scholarship that includes human subjects or their data. The workshop will cover what is and what is not human subjects research and details about submitting IRB applications at UCF.

Presenters: Tracy Dietz, Barbara Ward, Joanne Muratori, Janice Turchin

Thurs Oct 1, 2009 @ noon

Title: Protecting Intellectual Property

Who do I talk to about possible copyright IP issues? When and what is the process in disclosing my work? What resources does UCF provide to protect and to promote my work? What happens when my work makes money? What are some of the benefits to me and stories of successes?

Presenters: John Miner, Svetlana Shtrom, Keith Eng

Thurs Oct 8, 2009 @ noon

To coordinate workshops or for more information please contact: Jo Ann Smith at joasmith@mail.ucf.edu

