

Sharon E. Douglass

Summary of qualifications	1980 - 2004	University of Central Florida	Orlando, Florida
	Associate Professor
	• Associate Professor (1990-2004)
	• Assistant Professor, Cardiopulmonary Sciences Program (1980)
	• Acting Director of Clinical Education (1983-1985)
	• Interim Chair, Cardiopulmonary Sciences Program (1987-1989)
	• Program Director, Cardiopulmonary Sciences Program (1989-1991)
	• Direct the HIV-AIDS Education Office (1994-2001)
	• Teach in the College of Health and Public Affairs, Department of Health Professions (1980-present)
Education	1977 - 1978	State Univ. of New York	Buffalo, NY
	M.S. in Health Sciences Education and Evaluation
	• Degree awarded in the Spring of 1979
	1973 – 1977	University of Central Florida	Orlando, Florida
	B.S. in Cardiopulmonary Sciences
	• Degree awarded in the Spring of 1977
Professional experience	1994 - 2001	University of Central Florida	Orlando, Florida
	Associate Professor/Director, HIV-AIDS Education Office
	▪ Responsible for day-to-day operations of the office
	▪ Direct the HIV Antibody Testing Program on campus
	▪ Teach a course entitled HIV Disease: A Human Concern
	1990 – 1995	University of Central Florida	Orlando, Florida
	Associate Professor/Health Educator, Higher Education Consortium for AIDS Prevention. Centers for Disease Control Co-operative Agreement
	• Responsible for helping other state universities and community colleges to establish HIV education programs on their campus.
	1989 – 1991	University of Central Florida	Orlando, Florida
	Associate Professor/Program Director, Cardiopulmonary Sciences Program in the Department of Health Sciences
	• Responsible for the day-to-day operation of the program.
	• Teach a course on HIV disease.
Patents and	Douglass, S.E. and Smith, F. (1999) Human Immunodeficiency Virus

publications

Disease. In Critical Care Nursing. Bucher, L., & Melander, S. (Eds.) Philadelphia: W. B. Saunders Company. Pp 963-1009.

Additional professional activities

Member – By-laws committee for the Florida Society for Respiratory Care.

Alternate State Representative, Community Planning Partnership, HIV/AIDS Health Program Office.

Member, Needs Assessment Committee of the Community Planning Partnership, HIV/AIDS Health Program Office.

Member, Community Planning Partnership, HIV/AIDS Health Program Office.

Community activities

HIV presentations to assorted community venues, like high schools, middle schools, churches, professional organizations.

Work with an AIDS Service Organization called A Place of Comfort and another called Friends Together.

Presentations

Domestic Violence - Each year I update health professionals on this topic so that they can keep their license current.

HIV/AIDS - Each year I update health professionals and students with the latest information on HIV Disease.

Teacher Trainings - I am an HIV trainer for the Orange County School System.