

CALENDAR OF EVENTS	WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS
Monday	PHI THETA KAPPA Honor Society Conference Debbie Phillis, our Internship Coordinator and advisor for the Phi Theta Kappa Alumni Association at UCF, hosted their annual Leadership Conference here on Saturday, September 17, 2005. There were over 200 participants, mostly honor students from Florida's community colleges, and their advisors. It was one of the largest leadership conferences for the organization. PA's Graduate Programs SWOT Analysis This message is a follow-up to the announcement made at our departmental meeting. All faculty members are requested to submit via e-mail their perceptions of the Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats that impact our MPA and MNM programs. This exercise is part of the COHPA response to Graduate Studies examination of declining overall numbers of graduate students. Our SWOT must be completed by the end of September and will be compiled from your responses. E-mail your responses to Mary Ann Feldheim at mfeldhei@mail.ucf.edu. UCF Panel at SECOPA in Little Rock, Arkansas Dr. Naim Kapucu is the convener of the UCF panel at the South Eastern Conference of Public Administration (SECOPA) on Thursday, October 6th entitled Governance in Dynamic Environments. The following UCF students and faculty will be presenting: Wendell Lawther and Mike Neidhart, "Determinants of Public Participation: The Case of Transportation Planning" Naim Kapucu, "From Federal Response to National Response: The Organization of Homeland Security" Hilliary Knepper, Alicia Sitren, and Hayden Smith, "Government and Governance: A Comparison and Integration of Concepts for Public Administration" Angie Knowlton, "Partnership Model that Works: A University Community Partnership"
