

CALENDAR OF EVENTS	WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS
Monday	Wang, Dennis, and Tu Present at National Conference            Dr. XiaoHu Wang presented a paper entitled "Measuring Financial Condition" at the Association of Budgeting and Financial Management (ABFM) conference in Washington DC on November 11. The presentation, which examined a new method of measuring financial condition using the latest financial reporting model in the U.S. state and local governments, generated enthusiastic discussions among the panel participants. The paper was co-authored by our two of our graduates Dr. Lynda Dennis and UCF MPA graduate, Jeff Tu.
Tuesday	Dr. Korosec a Graduate of Leadership Orlando            Dr. Ronnie Korosec finished the nine month "Leadership Orlando" program this past week. The program included sessions on economic development, regional growth, environmental protection, education, healthcare, safety and justice, and quality of life. As part of her graduation project, Dr. Korosec helped create a program for underprivileged, at risk students in a local Orlando school to receive mentioning, clothing and school supplies.
Wednesday	Angel Smith Received CDM Public Administration Scholarship            At the end of April 2005, Ms. Smith attended the National Black Forum for Public Administrators (NFBPA) conference which was held in Richmond, Virginia. At that time she was notified that she had been chosen by Camp Dresser McKee (CDM) as their public administration scholarship recipient. CDM is one of the largest sponsors for the NFBPA. In addition, of all applicants they only select one recipient per year. The recipient of this award must have a strong character; demonstrate academic excellence, community and campus involvement, leadership, and a commitment to pursue a career in the field of public administration. We are very proud of Ms. Smith as a recipient of this scholarship.
