

CALENDAR OF EVENTS	WEEKLY ANNOUNCEMENTS
Monday	Sarah Sprouse Order of Pegasus Nominee for COHPA The competition to become the COHPA nominee for the Order of Pegasus represented the best and the brightest from our college. It is a great honor to announce that our own Sarah Sprouse, MPA student, has been selected as the COHPA nominee. Congratulations Sarah, we are very proud of you!
Tuesday	City-County Manager's Luncheon a Success There were over 30 managers who attended the luncheon along with the faculty from the Department of Public Administration, Dr. Larry Martin from the Center for Community Partnerships, and Marilyn Crotty from the Institute of Government. There was a lively discussion regarding the sharing of information and expertise and a consensus to hold future meetings. A meeting will be planned for the spring.
Wednesday	Article Published by Dr. Korosec In the December issue of The American Review of Public Administration (Vol. 35, No. 4, 380-401) you will find the article "Planning to Coordinate and Coordinating the Plan: Evidence From Local Governments." This article was written by Drs. Korosec and Berman.
Department Christmas Potluck Party 11:30 AM to 12:30 PM Departmental Meeting 12:30 PM to 2:00 PM	Drs. Kapucu and Wang Make the News The hurricane response survey conducted by Drs. Kapucu, Wang, and Berman along with Graduate Assistant Sarah Sprouse is getting a lot of attention thanks to Chad Binette, one of our Public Administration students. Chad wrote the story on the hurricane response study for the UCF webpage and sent out news releases. As a result of Chad's efforts Channel 6 News came to interview Dr. Kapucu and a story was printed in the Orlando Business Journal.
