

CALENDAR OF EVENTS	WEEKLY UPDATE
	Departmental Update Executive MPA Being Developed The department has been granted funding by Dean Dorner to begin implementation of our proposal for an Executive MPA program. This program will use a cohort model that recruits public administrators who wish to further their careers. It is anticipated that program will begin in the fall of 2007.
Monday
Tuesday	Faculty Update Dr. XiaoHu Wang's proposal for his book, "Performance Analysis in Public and Nonprofit Organizations", has been approved for publication by the Jones and Bartlett Publishers. This single-authored book presents issues on how to conduct performance analysis and uses performance information in public service organizations. The book is the result of Dr. Wang's research and practices in conducting performance measurement and performance analysis.
Wednesday
OPA Meeting 4:30 PM Student Union Rm. 223 "Maximizing the Career Fair"	Student Update Shea Silverman has been selected to the UCF Legislative Scholar's Program in Tallahassee for the Spring 2007 term. This program provides students with a unique insight into the workings of state government and the legislature. Many students use this opportunity to jump start their careers in public administration.
Thursday
Research Colloquium 4:30 PM HPA I Rm. 207 Dr. David McIntire Emergency Management	Patricia Harris and Gretchen Kerr Attend Planet Philanthropy The Central Florida Association of Fundraising Professionals has graciously awarded scholarships to two officers of our new fledgling collegiate chapter of the AFP to attend the 5th biennial statewide Planet Philanthropy on October 22nd – 24th. This three day event located at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort features distinguished speakers who are noted philanthropists in the field, practicum tracks to assist in professional success, and much more. Patricia Harris, President of the Collegiate AFP, and Gretchen Kerr, Philanthropic Chair of the Collegiate AFP were selected to attend representing the emerging new student group.
Friday
3rd Annual COHPA Research Conference "Emergency Disaster Management & Planning" FAIRWINDS Alumni Center, 8 AM to 5 PM	Jacques Coulon Awarded Scholarship to Florida ASPA Conference The Planning Committee of the Florida ASPA Conference awarded Jacques Coulon a scholarship to attend the 2007 conference. This year the Florida ASPA Conference will be held on Friday, May 11, 2007 at St. Petersburg College, Seminole Campus.
	Upcoming Events ASPA Meeting scheduled for November 2nd at 11:30 AM at the Orange County Library. Dr. Art Cross will provide an interactive session on networking for the professional. To register go to cflaspa@yahoo.com

