Monday	Dr. Liou Presenting at International Conference In China For the next few weeks Dr. Liou will be presenting at universities throughout China and Taiwan covering economic development. Dr. Liou received an invitational letter to present at The Second International Conference on Public Management in 21st Century in Macau.
Tuesday	Student Updates
OPA Career Fair Key West Ballroom Research Colloquium 4:30 PM HPA II – 247	Adopt-a-Precinct The Department of Public Administration's Adopt-a-Precinct program coordinated by Dr. Korosec was a success! Students ran Precinct 535 from 6am to 8:30pm last Tuesday. The process included checking-in and distributing ballots to eligible voters during election hours, and setting up before the polls opened and accounting for all ballots at the end of the night. In addition, the third grade class from St. Luke's came to the Precinct for a brief tour and a one-on-one with Bill Cowles, the Orange County Supervisor of Elections. The students who worked the precinct were Patricia Harris, Jacque Coulon, Jenny Lee, Endira Sharma, Sylvia Kapous, Cecelia Smith, Lauren Murphy, Cheryl Rainsberger, and Matthew Lee.
Wednesday	Student Opportunity The Department of Public Administration will be taking students to Tallahassee on February 20, 21 and 22, 2007. Applications are now available for PA students who are interested in going to meet with the Governor and Florida Legislature as part of the annual OPA trip. Applications are available outside of Dr. Korosec's door, in HPA II, Suite 238. Deadline for applications to be returned is December 15, 2007. Part of the cost of this trip will be covered by the Department, but students must be able to cover a portion, as well.
Philanthropy Day & AFP Meeting 4:30 PM HPA II – 247	Presidential Management Fellows Program The department is seeking our top graduate students to apply for the Presidential Management Fellows Program of the U.S. Office of Personnel Management. This highly selective, rigorous leadership program recruits outstanding students for a two-year developmental fellowship at various Federal agencies. Part of the process requires the department sponsor the students, so please contact Dr. Feldheim mfeldhei@mail.ucf.edu if you think you might be interested in seeking departmental sponsorship for this program. Recruitment, application and nomination information available online by phone at 202-606-1040 Or http://www.pmf.opm.gov/HowToApply.aspx
Thursday	OPA Public Service Career Fair – Tomorrow Our largest career fair ever is tomorrow at the Student Union Key West Ballroom 218 from 10 AM to 1:30 PM, and students should come in business attire and bring their professional resumes.
