

WEEKLY UPDATE
Monday	STUDENTS AND FACULTY ATTEND "AHMI"
Spring Semester Begins	Eight (8) American Humanics students along with Campus Director Stephanie Krick and Department Chair Mary Ann Feldheim attended the American Humanics Management Institute (AHMI) in Washington DC from January 3 rd to January 6 th . This year the program focused on Empowering Communities Through People, Passion, and Policy , where over 800 students from around the country participated in the programs.
Tuesday
Wednesday	Our students attending the conference were: Ana Defillo, Renea Forde, Kelly Locke, Andrew Neal, Tiffany Prais, Amanda Pokorny, Damarys Santiago, and Alexandria Valme . To finance their trip to AHMI, students held fundraising events, and they competed for grants from the Department of Public Administration's Student Volunteer and Service Learning Fund. At the conference students took advantage of field trips to congressional offices, nonprofit organizations, and special museum programs. Attendance at AHMI is a requirement for students to receive national American Humanics Certification.
