

WEEKLY UPDATE
Monday	NEW DEPARTMENTAL WEBSITE
CJ Lecture Series on Capital Punishment	New Image Take a moment to visit our new website, which was developed by our faculty and staff to be more user-friendly. We want to thank Alan Smilie, who spent many, many hours perfecting the site. We would like your feedback, so let us know your thoughts. http://www.cohpa.ucf.edu/pubadm/
Tuesday	FACULTY UPDATES
Wednesday	Drs. Liou and Feldheim Have Articles Published The latest issue of the International Journal of Public Administration (Volume 30, Issue 3) is a special issue on the Changes and Challenges in Public Management Reforms edited by Dr. Liou. Our faculty members have two articles in this issue: "Public Sector Downsizing and Employee Trust" by Dr. Feldheim and "Changes and Challenges in Regulatory Reform" by Dr. Liou.
Thursday	STUDENT UPDATES
ASPA Meeting Nonprofit Advisory Board Meeting 3 PM	OPA Taking Students to Tallahassee The OPA student group along with Dr. Korosec and Fred Kittinger Associate Vice President for University Relations will be taking ten (10) students to Tallahassee next week. This is the third year that students have been able to visit with leaders in state government to gain insight into the key issues of our time.
Friday	UPCOMING EVENTS
	The Future of Capital Punishment February 12th As part of the Spring 2007 Speakers' Series on Capital Punishment, Tufts University Professor Emeritus, Hugo Adam Bedau, will speak about the future of capital punishment tonight at 7:30 PM at the Fairwinds Alumni Center. Central Florida ASPA Chapter Meeting – February 15th Come to the "free" luncheon at the offices of the Orlando Regional Chamber of Commerce and learn about the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) in Central Florida. RSVP by February 13, 2007 to Rebecca Reis at 407- 835 - 2457 or e-mail at cflaspa@yahoo.com Nonprofit Advisory Board Meeting - February 15th held at the UCF Downtown Academic Center from 3 PM to 5 PM. Public Administration Research Colloquium – February 20th Dr. Wendell Lawther will be discussing "Collaborative Public Management" next Tuesday as part of the colloquium series. The event is held in HPA II Room 247 from 4:00 PM to 5:30 PM. All are welcome.