

WEEKLY UPDATE
Monday	STUDENT & FACULTY UPDATES
Tuesday	2007 Public Administration Legislative Conference in Tallahassee The Third Annual Public Administration Legislative Conference sponsored by the Organization for Public Administration (OPA) was held in mid-February. Dr. Korosec and Mr. Fred Kittinger, UCF Associate Vice President University Relations, traveled with students to the State Capitol in Tallahassee to represent the UCF Public Administration Department. The following students were selected to attend this year: Patricia Harris, Jennifer Kaiser, Sylvia Kapous, Justin Tabor, Jacques Coulon, Pauline Strauss, Tolga Arslan, Vener Garayev, Rich Ware, and James Oddie.
Wednesday	The students spent three days touring the capitol and meeting with various dignitaries, such as Attorney General Bill McCollum, Representative Dean Cannon, and Senator Lee Constantine just to name a few. Some highlights of the trip were: a special lunch briefing with the City of Orlando Mayor Buddy Dyer; attendance at a cabinet aides meeting; an exclusive tour of the Florida State Emergency Operations Center; a tour of the historic capital building museum; a test demonstration of the voting equipment in the House of Representatives; and the opportunity to sit in on a House of Representatives special tax session. The trip also included meeting the Senate Majority Leader, Senator Webster, and the UCF lobbyists as well as UCF students and alumni who are currently employed or interning in the capitol.
Thursday	The students are grateful for this wonderful opportunity and would like to thank Dr. Korosec and Mr. Kittinger for all their hard work in making the Legislative Conference possible.
