

CALENDAR OF EVENTS	WEEKLY UPDATE
	FACULTY & STUDENT ACTIVITIES
Monday	International Outreach – Dr. Wang
	XiaoHu Wang attended the Third China-US International Public Administration Conference in Beijing on June 8th and 9th, delivering a presentation titled "Performance Analysis for Public Services: Characteristics and Limitations". He also met in person with the dean of the School of Policy and Administration at Renmin University, the organizer of the conference, and the faculty of financial management of that school to discuss the issues of institutional development that are of mutual interest to that school and our department.
Tuesday
Wednesday	Service Learning in Action
Public Administration Advisory Board Meeting HPA II Room 247 3:00 PM to 4:30 PM	The student research team of Lynn Hogan, Eric Knoltz, Scott Skrean, and Ronald Gomez presented their team project at the American Red Cross Executive Council on June 20th. Their project was a survey analysis of household disaster preparedness in Central Florida. This is an excellent example of service learning in the public administration courses that can benefit the community and specific organizations, such as the American Red Cross.
Thursday	GAO Consults Dr. Kapucu
Dean McCarthy Leaves	The Government Accountability Office Public Management Network Team consulted Dr. Kapucu via telephone today regarding his research on interorganizational coordination in response to catastrophic disasters. Specifically network analysis of emerging networks. They plan to use his techniques for their analysis of Hurricane Katrina response operations.
